To Our Valued Customers:

At Empress, we are committed to ensuring the quality and integrity of every one of our products.

We have a proven record of meeting existing standards, and certify that all of our Empress foodservice items are produced without any Per-and Poly-Fluorinated substances (PFAS), making the Empress Bagasse line PFAS-free.

For additional information regarding Empress, Empress products, or PFAS, please reach out to your Empress sales representative.

We appreciate your ongoing support, and thank you for your business.

Regards,

Empress
